FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1875.

Whose Fault?

Many years ago a celebrated English lawyer—no other than the late Lord Brougham, then just called at the bar—undertook the defense of a young man, accused of stealing money. The evidence was clearly against the lad. It appeared that his employer kept the boy on starvation wages, and suspecting that he was robbing, laid the following trap for him: He marked a sovereign and put it in the till. Day after day passed and yet it remained untouched, but in an evil hour the tempation proved too strong, and the lad yielded to its power; he took the money, and arrest quickly followed. When the young advocate rose to plead in his forlorn hope, his hand wandered over the table until it came to the Bible. As he took it in his hand a titter ran through the Court, but the young lawyer turned the leaves over until he came to the sublime words, "Lead us not into temptation;" and he sat down. The young fellow was acquitted.

In the San Francisco Municipal Court, the other day, the evidence brought this little story strongly to mind. We had the millionaire stock broker giving his clerk, Kuehol, $30 a month at first, and afterwards $60 and putting in his power, day after day, the disposal of millions. Had the boy been fairly paid and well looked after he would not now be in San Quentin: but he was in almost similar manner led into temptation and he perished therein.

THE "FRISCO" GIRL.—A writer says: "There are girls and girls, of course; but not any of them excel your thoroughbred San Franciscan in piquancy and nerve, not in real girlish frolicsomeness. Behold her! She attitudinizes before her mirror with the utmost frankness, studying, as an artist might, proper and becoming poses. Do you tell her she is beautiful, she askes you to 'give her some news.' Your best-tuned compliments she criticises, nor ever loses her head one particle when you utter your compliments with the greatest expressment. 'Oh, yes, so I am often told; but what does it amount to?' She sings love songs for you, looking over her shoulder with the most provoking roguishness, or waltzes with you as if you were her brother. And all the time she is ravishingly beautiful, and she knows it. Not a point but has been studied; and after all she has only done what you would have required of her—made the best of her advantages. If she makes a mistake at all, it is in not giving you credit for being as much struck with her as you are. She is amusing herself, and so, she thinks, may you be."

A bashful and not over educated fellow went to see his girl the other night, and as he started away, he put his arm around her and whispered in her ear, "dearest, I love you;" and she responded sweetly, "ditto," meaning, of course, a reciprocation of his tender passion. The young man could not find "ditto" in his vocabulary, and asked his father the next day as they were hoeing cabbage, what it meant. The old gent rested a moment on his hoe, and pointed to the cabbage in front of him with the remark: "You see that cabbage?" "Yes," responded the youth. "And you see the next one there?" "Yes." "Well, that is called ditto," "Dam her!" exclaimed the impetuous youth, "she called me a cabbage head."

THE CAUSE OF HIS RED FACE.—The other day a Detroit husband went off on a fishing excursion with a small party of friends. Returning at mid the hall she saw something ailed him, and she cried out;

"Why, Henry, your face is as red as paint."

"Guesser n't," he replied, feeling along down the hall.

"And I believe you've been drinking," she added.

"Wazzer mean by zhat?" he inquired, trying to stand still.

"Oh! Henry, your face would never look like that if you hadn't been drinking."

"Mi to blame?' he asked, tears in his eyes. "Sposen big bass jump up'n hit me in the face an' make it red—mi to blame?"

And he sat down on the floor and cried over her unjust suspicions.

FRIEDLANDER, the wheat king, like Senators Jones and Sharon, has been compelled to borrow heavily, and give one per cent a month interest. Jones pays one and a quarter per cent a month, and Sharon one per cent. The interest that either of these gentlemen are paying is equal to a first class income.

1876 has two eclipses of the sun; moon, ditto.

WAS TEMPTED.—A member of the colored church was the other evening conversing earnestly with an acquaintence, and seeking to have him change into better paths, but the friend said that he was too often tempted to permit him to become a Christian.

"Whar's yer backbone dat ye can't rose up and stand temptation!" exclaimed the good man. "I was dat way myself once. Right in dis here town I had a chance to steal a pa'r o' boots—mighty fine ones, too. Nobody was dar to see me, and I reach out my hand and de debbil said take 'em. Den a good sperit whispered for me to lot dem boots alone."

"An' you didn't take 'em?"

"No, sah—not much. I took a pa'r 'o cheap shoes off de shelf, and I left dem boots alone!"—[Vicksburg Herald.

Yesterday morning a long-haired, thickly-bearded stranger, entered a Griswold street barber shop, and in response to the inquiry if he would like to be shaved, he replied: "Yes, sir, you miserable, contemptible, skulking highway pirate, I would." He removed his hat, drew a big navy revolver, cocked it, and sitting down in the chair with the revolver in his hand, he continued: "Now, go ahead! If you ask me to have my hair cut, or say that I have dandruff, or cut my chin, or ask me to buy your hair restorer, I'll shoot you dead in your tracks!" The barber didn't say one word while shaving that man.—[Detroit Free Press.

SPRING WAGONS.

KENT & WEEKS

Sole Agents for the Celebrated

DAVIS BROS. PATENT

COMBINATION SPRING PLATFORM,

For the State of Nevada.

The Best Carrying, Easiest Riding and Most Durable Wagon in Use.

The best carrying because of perfect Springs, and bearings at proper points to give the greatest strength.

Easiest riding. A Wagon carrying 1500 lbs. rides as easy for one man as the best Phaeton.

Most durable, because the combination of the Springs is such as to give perfect elasticity to the gear, thereby entirely obviating the sharp side motion and consequent strain on the Wheels and other parts of the Wagon, allowing the Wagon to pass over all irregularities of the road without winding or cracking the box, or jerking, or inconvenience to those riding. The binding of the circle, a necessity with all other Platform Wagons, is entirely obviated, allowing the Wagon to follow the road without crowding the team from side to side.

Our Wagons are manufactured from choice material, by the best mechanics, thoroughly painted, with fine finish and trim, and warranted.

If you want a Family Wagon, a Peddler's Wagon, Market wagon, or a Wagon for any of the purposes for which the Platform or Democrat Wagon is generally used, see and try these Wagons and you will use no other.

RENO PRISON.—The Reno JOURNAL copies the Tribune's editorial remarks concerning the flimsiness of the prison walls in full, without comment, therefore it may be concluded that the editor of the JOURNAL accepts them as about correct.—Carson Tribune, 3d.

We will tell the Tribune just why we copied the article. Simply to show the people of Reno what scandalous matter a damphool could write when he choose. The remarks about the prison walls are nothing but a mess of lies. Carsonites are so mean spirited and selfish that when they see the walls of our prison they imagine they are looking at the iron railing around the State Capitol.

NEW SOCIAL CLUB.—The "Reno Terpsichorean Social Club" is the name of a new dancing club just formed with the following officers: President, J. B. Williams; Vice President, J. K. Everett; Secretary, C. A Hoyt; Treasurer, J. H. Kinkead. The new club starts in with a membership of thirty. The objects for which it is formed are laudable. The club proposes to apply the proceeds toward a reading room and library. That is something Reno long has needed, and which we have often urged; we therefore trust that the new club will meet with the most unbounded success.

BENEFIT.—The McGinley Sisters have tendered a benefit to the Reno Fire Department, to take place tomorrow (Saturday) night, at their Opera House. The worthiness of the object as well as the spirit that prompts the act, can not fail to draw a crowded house. We therefore bespeak the McGinleys a full house and the Fire Department a substantial result therefrom. Buy a ticket or two, even if you can't go.

THE Soliciting Committee had, up to last evening, received pledges to the amount of $2,483 50. About $3,000 is the figure needed to get a good outfit.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—The Truckee Republican of the 3d, has this to say of a man now being advertised for in our columns: About three weeks ago a man named Antone Mussig left Mackey & Fair's Mill above Reno, with a team, a saddle horse and about $500 in money. He sent the team on to Truckee intending to follow it himself and did start with his saddle horse. After leaving Reno nothing has been seen or heard of him and fears are entertained that he has been foully dealt with. A few days ago a man put in an appearance in Wadsworth and was shortly afterwards arrested for larceny, and sent up for fifteen days. From some peculiarity of his manner and strangeness of action, suspicion that he knew something of the missing man, was aroused and an investigation bearing on this aspect of the case, is now being prosecuted. The missing man has been engaged in teaming in this vicinity during the Summer just past, and was known as an honest, sober and industrious man. His friends here are instituting a search for such information that will lead to his discovery.

GOOD MOVE.—A paper is being circulated among the business men to the effect that they close their respective stores on Sundays. The paper is receiving many signatures and we hope all will sign it. Of course it will require the assent of all to put it in force. It seems to us that six days is enough for any one to work, and to judge from the way the paper is being signed, our trades people are of the same mind.

FIRE MEETING.—The meeting of the citizens to hear the reports of the committees appointed the other evening, has been changed to Wednesday instead of to-morrow night. All citizens, and particularly those who have subscribed, are desired to meet at the Reno Opera House Wednesday at 7 o'clock sharp.

FIRST DANCE.—The new social club will give its first dance at the Reno Opera House next Tuesday evening, the net proceeds to be given to the Fire Department. The best of music will be furnished, and the tickets are only two dollars. We hope to see a large attendance.

EXTRA COPIES.—Persons wishing extra copies of this issue, on account of the premium list, can be supplied by calling at the office. One bit per copy.

I. O. G. T.—The installation of officers for the ensuing term will take place in Haswell Lodge, No. 18, tonight. A full attendance is particularly desired.

SHARON BROKE.—There was a rumor in San Francisco yesterday that Sharon was "busted." Guess merely a plot of the bears to depress the market.

WE are under obligations to Mr. B. H. McClure for the premium list published elsewhere.

DAVID SMITH will find a telegram at the Western Union office.

WHERE IS HE?—Two weeks ago last Tuesday Antone Mussig left Mackey & Fair mill and came to Reno. He had at the time a team of valuable horses, a saddle horse and about $500 in money. On the following Thursday he sent a teamster with the team to Truckee, intending to follow shortly after himself to work on a contract. He left soon after on his saddle horse. Since then he has not been heard from and fears of foul play are entertained. He is a sober, hard-working, honest man and so it is not likely that he got drunk or gambled. If any one knows his whereabouts they will confer a favor by notifying H. H. Beck, of Franktown. oc29-1w

REMOVED.—The Misses Vance are now located on Virginia street, next door to the photograph gallery. They will receive at their dressmaking establishment and make to order in the latest styles, all kinds of plain and fancy sewing. *

FOR SALE.—Nels. Hammond has a house for sale. Inquire of him for particulars. *

MISCELLANEOUS.

DR. A. B. SPINNEY,

The Celebrated Specialist,

Well-known as founder of the Montreal (C. E.) Medical Institute, and late Proprietor of the BELLEVUE VILLA, OAKLAND, would most respectfully inform his patients and the afflicted generally that he still continues to treat chronic and private disease with unparalleled success.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,

Remember, that procrastination is the thief of time, so

COME AND BE HEALED!

It matters not what your trouble may be, come and let the Doctor examine your case. It will cost you nothing for consultation, so please call and satisfy yourselves whether the Doctor understands your case. If he can cure you he will tell you so; if not, he will tell you that, for he will not undertake a case unless he is confident of effecting a cure.

YOUNG MEN!

Who may be suffering from the effects of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit five hundred dollars for every case of seminal weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure. He would therefore, say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice, that you are treading upon dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedy for your complaint. You may be in the first stage—remember you are approaching the last. If you are bordering upon the last, and are suffering some or all of its evil effects, remember that if you obstinately persist in procrastination, the time must come when the most skillful physician can render you no assistance; when the door of hope will be closed against you; when no angel of mercy can bring you relief. In no case has the Doctor failed of success. Then let not despair work itself upon your imagination, but avail yourself of the beneficial results of his treatment before your case is beyond the reach of medical skill, or before grim death hurries you to a premature grave.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN!

There are many of the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for; on examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin and milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

N. B.—Only an interview required in a majority of cases; balance of treatment can be conducted at home without interruption of business. All letters, or communications, strictly confidential.

Office Hours—10 to 1, 2 to 4, and 7 to 8. Sundays, from 2 to 4 only. Consultation, Free.

Thorough examination and advice, $5.00.

Office, No. 188 SOUTH C STREET, Virginia City, where he will be pleased to consult with all who may be suffering, from Chronic or Special Diseases.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1875.

Whose Fault?

Many years ago a celebrated English lawyer—no other than the late Lord Brougham, then just called at the bar—undertook the defense of a young man, accused of stealing money. The evidence was clearly against the lad. It appeared that his employer kept the boy on starvation wages, and suspecting that he was robbing, laid the following trap for him: He marked a sovereign and put it in the till. Day after day passed and yet it remained untouched, but in an evil hour the tempation proved too strong, and the lad yielded to its power; he took the money, and arrest quickly followed. When the young advocate rose to plead in his forlorn hope, his hand wandered over the table until it came to the Bible. As he took it in his hand a titter ran through the Court, but the young lawyer turned the leaves over until he came to the sublime words, "Lead us not into temptation;" and he sat down. The young fellow was acquitted.

In the San Francisco Municipal Court, the other day, the evidence brought this little story strongly to mind. We had the millionaire stock broker giving his clerk, Kuehol, $30 a month at first, and afterwards $60 and putting in his power, day after day, the disposal of millions. Had the boy been fairly paid and well looked after he would not now be in San Quentin: but he was in almost similar manner led into temptation and he perished therein.

THE "FRISCO" GIRL.—A writer says: "There are girls and girls, of course; but not any of them excel your thoroughbred San Franciscan in piquancy and nerve, not in real girlish frolicsomeness. Behold her! She attitudinizes before her mirror with the utmost frankness, studying, as an artist might, proper and becoming poses. Do you tell her she is beautiful, she askes you to 'give her some news.' Your best-tuned compliments she criticises, nor ever loses her head one particle when you utter your compliments with the greatest expressment. 'Oh, yes, so I am often told; but what does it amount to?' She sings love songs for you, looking over her shoulder with the most provoking roguishness, or waltzes with you as if you were her brother. And all the time she is ravishingly beautiful, and she knows it. Not a point but has been studied; and after all she has only done what you would have required of her—made the best of her advantages. If she makes a mistake at all, it is in not giving you credit for being as much struck with her as you are. She is amusing herself, and so, she thinks, may you be."

A bashful and not over educated fellow went to see his girl the other night, and as he started away, he put his arm around her and whispered in her ear, "dearest, I love you;" and she responded sweetly, "ditto," meaning, of course, a reciprocation of his tender passion. The young man could not find "ditto" in his vocabulary, and asked his father the next day as they were hoeing cabbage, what it meant. The old gent rested a moment on his hoe, and pointed to the cabbage in front of him with the remark: "You see that cabbage?" "Yes," responded the youth. "And you see the next one there?" "Yes." "Well, that is called ditto," "Dam her!" exclaimed the impetuous youth, "she called me a cabbage head."

THE CAUSE OF HIS RED FACE.—The other day a Detroit husband went off on a fishing excursion with a small party of friends. Returning at mid-the hall she saw something ailed him, and she cried out;

"Why, Henry, your face is as red as paint."

"Guesser n't," he replied, feeling along down the hall.

"And I believe you've been drinking," she added.

"Wazzer mean by zhat?" he inquired, trying to stand still.

"Oh! Henry, your face would never look like that if you hadn't been drinking."

"Mi to blame?' he asked, tears in his eyes. "Sposen big bass jump up'n hit me in the face an' make it red—mi to blame?"

And he sat down on the floor and cried over her unjust suspicions.

FRIEDLANDER, the wheat king, like Senators Jones and Sharon, has been compelled to borrow heavily, and give one per cent a month interest. Jones pays one and a quarter per cent a month, and Sharon one per cent. The interest that either of these gentlemen are paying is equal to a first class income.

WAS TEMPTED.—A member of the colored church was the other evening conversing earnestly with an acquaintence, and seeking to have him change into better paths, but the friend said that he was too often tempted to permit him to become a Christian.

"Whar's yer backbone dat ye can't rose up and stand temptation!" exclaimed the good man. "I was dat way myself once. Right in dis here town I had a chance to steal a pa'r o' boots—mighty fine ones, too. Nobody was dar to see me, and I reach out my hand and de debbil said take 'em. Den a good sperit whispered for me to lot dem boots alone."

"An' you didn't take 'em?"

"No, sah—not much. I took a pa'r 'o cheap shoes off de shelf, and I left dem boots alone!"—[Vicksburg Herald.

Yesterday morning a long-haired, thickly-bearded stranger, entered a Griswold street barber shop, and in response to the inquiry if he would like to be shaved, he replied: "Yes, sir, you miserable, contemptible, skulking highway pirate, I would." He removed his hat, drew a big navy revolver, cocked it, and sitting down in the chair with the revolver in his hand, he continued: "Now, go ahead! If you ask me to have my hair cut, or say that I have dandruff, or cut my chin, or ask me to buy your hair restorer, I'll shoot you dead in your tracks!" The barber didn't say one word while shaving that man.—[Detroit Free Press.

The Best Carrying, Easiest Riding and Most Durable Wagon in Use.

The best carrying because of perfect Springs, and bearings at proper points to give the greatest strength.

Easiest riding. A Wagon carrying 1500 lbs. rides as easy for one man as the best Phaeton.

Most durable, because the combination of the Springs is such as to give perfect elasticity to the gear, thereby entirely obviating the sharp side motion and consequent strain on the Wheels and other parts of the Wagon, allowing the Wagon to pass over all irregularities of the road without winding or cracking the box, or jerking, or inconvenience to those riding. The binding of the circle, a necessity with all other Platform Wagons, is entirely obviated, allowing the Wagon to follow the road without crowding the team from side to side.

Our Wagons are manufactured from choice material, by the best mechanics, thoroughly painted, with fine finish and trim, and warranted.

If you want a Family Wagon, a Peddler's Wagon, Market wagon, or a Wagon for any of the purposes for which the Platform or Democrat Wagon is generally used, see and try these Wagons and you will use no other.
